to fight childhood hunger

Filling in the Blanks was founded by mothers and community activists, Shawnee Knight and Tina Kramer, who created the nonprofit as a way to marry their loves of community, children, food and charity. In 2013, Knight and Kramer created Filling in the Blanks which has now expanded to include 60 schools throughout Fairfield and Westchester Counties and has delivered over ONE MILLION-weekend meals to children in low-income households.

- Email or share your page on social media and ask for a donation.
- Make it attainable for your donors, for example, ask friends to donate $6 which feeds a child for a weekend or $260 which feeds a child for a year.
- Remind donors that every donation makes a difference and be sure to thank them for giving!

Hi XXX,

I am writing to share my exciting news. I am holding a fundraiser for Filling in the Blanks. They are a local nonprofit that fights childhood hunger by providing children in need with meals on the weekends. I am challenging myself to raise $1000, to help end childhood hunger. Did you know that 1 in 4 children are food insecure? Join me in the fight against childhood hunger by making a donation of $50 to my fundraiser. LINK TO YOUR FUNDRAISER
